

Town Of Farmington Wastewater Treatment Facility
269 Farmington Falls Road Farmington, Maine 04938

The Town of Farmington is seeking the services of a qualified Wastewater Treatment Plant Operator to fill a full time 40 hour per week laborer/ operator position. The respective candidate will demonstrate the ability to operate and maintain the wastewater collection system, treatment plant, and outlying pump stations to control flow and the processing of wastewater, bio solids, and effluent in accordance with State and Federal licensing regulations. In addition the candidate we also be responsible for conducting laboratory analysis of wastewater, effluent, and bio solids samples as well as prepare and maintain records of operation and maintenance procedures and adhere to all applicable safety procedures. The prospective must be mechanically inclined with the ability to work on various pumps and small gas-powered equipment.

Desired Minimum Qualifications

High School Graduate or GED. College or vocational training would be a plus for this position.

One or two years of applicable experience in the operation of a wastewater treatment facility: / any combination of experience and education.

Must possess mechanical aptitude and have the ability to use common hand tools to perform routine maintenance on wastewater collection system and plant equipment.

Must have the ability to follow written as well as verbal instructions and communicate well, establish and maintain effective working relationships with fellow employees, other departments, and the public.

The candidate must also demonstrate the ability to operate a computer to assist in maintaining facility records generate monthly State and Federal Reports in addition to formulate written standard operating procedures for daily tasks performed at the facility.

A valid State Driver's License and a Class 1 Wastewater Treatment Plant Operator's Certificate or the ability to obtain one after one year of employment are also desired.

Interested applicants may send their resumes to Town of Farmington 153 Farmington Falls Road Farmington, Maine 04938 Attention Wastewater Treatment Department, or email them to smillett@farmington-maine.org. The Town of Farmington is an equal opportunity employer.